You are receiving this email because you are a member of CEAD, or have asked to be added to our database. If you do not wish to continue receiving communications from us please unsubscribe below.

There are a few things happening that you may wish to know about.

- You will receive some information regarding the election of officers in the next 2 weeks. Please be involved by nominating and voting for candidates, and consider putting your name forward for any of the vacant positions.
- Organisation of the 2018 conference in Santiago, Chile is well underway. Keep checking the website for updates, call for papers and registration information. Put the date in your diary now! 20 - 23 November 2018
- The website www.cead.org.nz is undergoing redevelopment. Check it out and update your bookmarks. Also add our email address info@cead.org.nz to your list of safe senders.

- CEAD now has a journal! It's entirely online and open access, and we're looking forward to pushing some ethnographic boundaries. To submit an article to The Ethnographic Edge go to www.tee.ac.nz
- The journal needs peer reviewers. Please go to the journal website www.tee.ac.nz and register your details and interests. Given that it's a new website and process for us, if you have any problems with your registration please email us directly at journal@cead.org.nz

That's all from us for now. Ka kite koe ki Chile! (see you in Chile!)
