More than 180 presenters from diverse countries have had their abstract approved for the 5th CEAD hui in Chile 2018.

It is now important that you register for the conference as soon as possible so that we can plan for the numbers attending. The final date for registrations will be October 20th.

Presenters MUST register by the 30th of September

to assure their place in the programme. (If this is difficult for you, please email us to let us know that you still want to attend and present!)

If you need to know about accommodation options in Santiago please see our web site <http://cead.org.nz/registration/> or email Antonio: garciaquiroga@gmail.com

The full draft programme will be available soon.

Proposed Change to the CEAD Constitution.

Please vote to delete clause 24.2 from the ACEAD constitution. This can be done by following this link to our Facebook poll or by emailing info@cead.org.nz with 'agree' or 'do not agree' in the subject line.

Full details are available on Facebook, but the short version is that there are some challenging aspects to the constitution that cannot be brought to the members for discussion unless we have 200 people agree that we may do this. Please vote!!

We need nominations for the ACEAD executive council.

In line with the constitution, we have the following positions up for election:

President
Vice-President
Archivist
Treasurer
2 council members

These elected positions will make up the council, with the addition of 2 other members drawn from the organising committee of CEAD 2020 (in Auckland). Those 2 members will be decided once that committee is established.

Nominations need to go k.fitzpatrick@auckland.ac.nz
by 1st November 2018

Please share our newsletters with your networks - it's people who power this amazing event, so your contribution to our marketing is appreciated!

That's all from us for now. Ka kite koe ki Chile! (see you in Chile! Nos vemos en Chile!)
